This week’s issue

Contents

478 Comment
478 Politics and resistance

479 News and Reports
479 Call to phase out prophylactic use of antimicrobials in livestock
480 RCVS Registrar to stand down
480 Members appointed to animal health and welfare board
481 Minister leads topping out of ‘world-class’ facility at Pirbright
482 Vets’ food safety role on show in Scotland
482 Ups and downs for vulnerable breeds
483 Veterinary ethics and the humane treatment of animals
489 Veterinary medicines: product update

484 News in Brief

485 BVA Council
485 Concern expressed about AHVLA’s plans for laboratory services

491 Research
491 Preventing lungworm (W. Wapenaar)
493 Survey of Salmonella prevalence on commercial turkey breeding and fattening farms in the UK in 2006 to 2007 (L. C. Snow and others)
494 Lungworm outbreaks in adult dairy cows: estimating economic losses and lessons to be learned (M. Holzhauer and others)

495 Comparative evaluation of three commercially available complement fixation test antigens for the diagnosis of glanders (I. Khan and others)
496 Assessment of consciousness during propofol anaesthesia in pigs (P. Llonch and others)
496 Canine haemophilia A caused by a mutation leading to a stop codon (R. Mischke and others)

497 Research Digest

498 Viewpoint
498 Antimicrobials in the balance: prudence and the precautionary principle (N. Craven)

500 Gazette

503 Letters
503 Reducing surgical complications using a safety checklist (J. Gasson)
503 Dog breeding (S. McCulloch)
504 Ingestion of multiple magnets by a dog (N. Creedy, N. Bates)

505 BVA News

Vet Record Careers
i Embarking on a surgical internship ii 1000 years’ experience – and a variety of careers