This week’s issue

Planning for the future – further funding for redevelopment of the IAH at Pirbright, p 622
Metaldehyde poisoning in a heifer: a case reported by the SAC, p 629
Investigating hock lesions in dairy cattle, p 634

620 Comment
620 Pets on the move

621 News and Reports
621 Tapeworm controls to remain for travelling pets
621 Measures to support battery cage ban
622 IAH to get funding for further redevelopment at Pirbright
622 Combating endemic diseases
623 RCVS to prioritise formation of an audit and risk committee
624 THE award for the RVC
624 Equine disease codes published
625 Changes ahead as budget for surveillance is squeezed
626 Vet warned as to future conduct
627 Putting ‘feminisation of the profession’ in context
627 New clinic for equine practice
627 Collaboration on badger vaccination

628 Surveillance
628 SAC CVVS disease surveillance report for September

632 Research
632 Getting to grips with hock lesions in cattle (R. Laven, C. Livesey)
634 Prevalence and characterisation of, and producers’ attitudes towards, hock lesions in UK dairy cattle (S. L. Potton and others)

635 Canine breeds at high risk of developing inflammatory bowel disease in the south-eastern UK (A. Kathrani and others)
636 Surgical excision and morphological evaluation of altered abdominal scent glands in Mongolian gerbils (Meriones unguiculatus) (M. Deutschland and others)
637 Efficacy of long-acting moxidectin against sarcoptic mange in naturally infested sheep (S. Astiz and others)
637 Dwarfism associated with chondrodysplasia in a red deer (Cervus elaphus) (J. W. Simpson and others)

638 Research Digest

639 Books
640 Gazette

642 Letters
642 Contagious ovine digital dermatitis (C. Lewis)
642 Non-healing hoof lesions in dairy cows (A. Gomez and others)

Products and Services

Veterinary Record Careers
i The only way is ethics . . .
ii Ten-minute chat