Contents

This week’s issue

New team of officers invested at the RCVS AGM, p 61
Severe oxalate nephropathy in Zwartbles sheep, p 81
Photosensitisation in a horse suspected to be caused by hogweed, p 81

58 Comment
58 Dogs, society and the law

59 News and Reports
59 Engaging with young owners of status dogs
60 Thirteen convicted in illegal veterinary medicines case
60 Disciplinary case dismissed
61 New officer team at the RCVS
61 MEPs back country of origin labelling for fresh meat
62 NOAH introduces new requirements for advertising antimicrobials to farmers
62 Wheels of fortune for animal charity
63 Global partnership to tackle fatal cattle disease
63 Rapid-result blood test for strangles
64 New name for Merck’s animal health division
64 Formulary at your fingertips
65 Animal welfare in a world concerned with food security
67 Good husbandry ‘the best way to guard against an outbreak of PMWS’

64 News in Brief

68 Research
68 Meticillin-resistant staphylococci in companion animals (J. Heller)
70 Effects of different antimicrobial treatments on serum acute phase responses and leucocyte counts in pigs after a primary and a secondary challenge infection with Actinobacillus pleuropneumoniae (M. Sjölund and others)
71 Selected haematological and plasma chemistry parameters in juvenile and adult degus (Octodon degus) (V. Jekl and others)

72 Research Digest
72 Prevalence of meticillin-resistant staphylococci among dogs and cats at a veterinary teaching hospital in Portugal (N. Couto and others)
72 Seroprevalence of Streptococcus equi in working horses in Lesotho (A. S. G. Ling and others)
73 Pilot survey of bovine norovirus in northern Italy (I. Di Bartolo and others)
73 Tetralogy of Fallot in a three-month-old lamb: clinical, ultrasonographic and laboratory findings (D. Lacasta and others)

75 Viewpoint
75 Keeping regulation up to date (P. G. Saluja)

77 Books

79 Gazette

81 Letters
81 Severe oxalate nephropathy in Zwartbles sheep (B. W. Strugnell and others)
81 Hogweed suspected of causing primary photosensitisation in a horse (P. Ivens)
82 Controlling dog behaviour (A. Aiyappa) (R. Mugford)

Vet Record Careers
i Making good use of statistics
ii Writing a grant proposal