This week’s issue

Oculonasal discharge and feather staining in a gosling with goose parvovirus, p 293

Developing better tests for Schmallenberg virus, p 294

Measuring urinary adiponectin in dogs with renal disease, p 297

282 Comment
282 Matters arising

283 News and Reports
283 IFAH highlights barriers to innovation on medicines
284 Seasonal canine illness: cases suspected
284 FVE publishes guidance on responsible use of antimicrobials
285 Licence issued for pilot badger cull in Gloucestershire
286 International flavour for BSAVA’s Scottish congress
286 Disciplinary charges adjourned after vet agrees to request removal from Register
287 Database lists tests for clinically relevant hereditary diseases in dogs and cats
288 Acting Registrar takes up new post at the RCVS
288 IAH to be renamed as The Pirbright Institute
289 Student-led consultations offered by Scottish practice

288 News in Brief

288 Surveillance
290 AHVLA disease surveillance report for July

294 Research
294 Diagnostics for Schmallenberg virus (W. H. M. van der Poel)

296 A survey of antimicrobial usage on dairy farms and waste milk feeding practices in England and Wales (L. A. Brunton and others)
297 Serum and urinary adiponectin in dogs with renal disease from leishmaniasis (A. Tvarijonaviciute and others)
298 Crystalisation pattern of caudal vaginal mucus and the relationship with vestibular electrical resistance in cycling sows (V. Luño and others)
299 Schmallenberg virus antibodies in bovine and ovine fetuses (C. van Maanen and others)
299 Abattoir survey of abomasal lesions associated with ostertagiosis in adult cattle (L. Larrialliet and others)

300 Research Digest
301 Gazette

303 Letters
303 Elevated suicide risks, cats and toxoplasmosis (A. Sparkes)
304 Mental health research (A. Owen)
304 Coat colour in South China bulls (R. Brown)

Products and Services

Vet Record Careers

Key Features: • Keyword search • Jobs updated constantly • Manage your favourite jobs and searches • Share jobs via Facebook and Twitter