This week’s issue

Animal athletes: how do humans compare?  p 87
Larval form of Echinococcus multilocularis found in a beaver from Serbia,  p 100
Mast cell tumour in the sternocleidomastoid muscle of a dog,  p 105

80 Comment
80 Environmental challenge

81 News and Reports
81 Wales plans new legislation on dangerous dogs
81 Select committee presses for code of conduct on milk contracts
82 Welsh Government and National Trust to collaborate on badger vaccination
82 AHVLA chief executive moves to FSA
82 Disciplinary investigation into vet convicted of welfare offences
83 Collaboration key to improving livestock productivity in Africa
84 FAU and OIE urge laboratories to destroy their stocks of rinderpest virus
84 EFSA reiterates its opinion on the safety of food from cloned animals
85 Sharing best practice in veterinary education
85 Award recognises contributions to advances in humane slaughter
86 Honorary degree for ‘pioneer of equine stud medicine’
86 Reducing methane production by cows

83 News in Brief
87 Feature
87 Animal athletes: a performance review (N. C. C. Sharp)

95 Research
95 Validating topical skin therapies in randomised controlled studies (M. Linke)