This week’s issue

Influence of gender and area of upbringing on career choices by veterinary students, p 313
Otitis media with effusion in Cavalier King Charles spaniels, p 315
Investigating the role of lesser characterised respiratory viruses in horses, p 315

300 Comment
300 Supply and demand

301 News and Reports
301 TB statistics ‘make for sober reading’
301 TB reactor numbers fall in Irish Republic
302 RCVS Council elections begin
302 RVC reaccredited by the AVMA
303 Guidance on reducing infection risks for pet rodent owners
304 Veterinary practice makes best companies list
304 Preparing dogs for an addition to the family
305 Fellowship for outstanding efforts in farming
306 Awareness raised at equine infectious diseases seminar
306 EC seeks advice on risks from phenylbutazone in horsemeat
307 ‘Science cake bake’ held in aid of Red Nose Day

303 News in Brief
308 Feature
308 Regulating the profession: ensuring modern best practice (A. Roberts)

310 Research
310 Bovine TB control: valuable insights from countries on steps toward eradication (G. Ru and others)
312 Bovine tuberculosis trends in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland, 1995 to 2010 (D. A. Abernethy and others)

313 Veterinary career ambitions correlate with gender and past experience, with current experience influencing curricular perspectives (T. Kemison, S. A. May)
314 Validation of key indicators in cattle farms at high risk of animal welfare problems: a qualitative case-control study (P. C. Kelly and others)
315 Progression of otitis media with effusion in the Cavalier King Charles spaniel (S. J. McGuinness and others)
315 Investigation of the role of lesser characterised respiratory viruses associated with upper respiratory tract infections in horses (N. Pusterla and others)

316 Research Digest
317 Books
318 Gazette
319 Letters
319 Osteogenesis imperfecta in dachshunds (E. Schütz and others) (J. Eckardt and others)
319 Trial of a novel diet for epilepsy in dogs (H. A. Volk, E. Davies)
320 Obesity in labradors and golden retrievers (E. Raffan)
320 RCVS Council elections (F. J. Marshall)

Products and Services
Vet Record Careers
i Active learning

March 23, 2013 | Veterinary Record | 299