This week’s issue

566 Comment
566 ‘Missing measures’ on dogs

567 News and Reports
567 Focus groups identify pressures to prescribe antimicrobials
568 FAQ warns Europe of the threat of African swine fever
568 Defra extends its badger vaccination fund
569 Survey suggests many pets do not receive preventive healthcare
569 Raising awareness of vaccination
570 Vet nurses’ council discusses plans to change the Practice Standards Scheme
570 RCVS Charitable Trust joins All Trials campaign
571 UK horse passport rules — ‘a catalogue of misunderstanding’
572 New directions in teaching and research
573 Deadlines approach for equine grant applications
573 Modernising pig meat inspection systems
574 Veterinary medicines: product update

576 Research
576 Educating owners — the key to managing cat populations (J. Aurich, A. Becher)
578 Neuter status of cats at four and six months of age is strongly associated with the owners’ intended age of neutering (C. P. Welsh and others)
579 Determination of ovulation time in sows based on skin temperature and genital electrical resistance changes (V. Luro and others)

580 Plant poisoning in domestic animals: epidemiological data from an Italian survey (2000 to 2011) (E. Caloni and others)
581 Long-term outcome for two heifers with a granulosa-theca cell tumour (H. Dobson and others)
581 Rasamsonia argillacea mycosis in a dog; first case in Europe (R. Salguero and others)

582 Research Digest
583 Viewpoint
583 Teaching dog owners new tricks (K. Shepherd)
585 Gazette
585 Letters
585 BVA policy on bovine TB and badger control (M. Whitehead)
585 Importance of communication (P. Laing)
586 A vet not by any other name (C. Tansley)
586 History of veterinary science in Kenya (D. H. M. Fraser)

587 BVA News
587 Vet Record Careers
587 Venturing into partnership