This week’s issue

86 Comment
86 Trust and regulation

87 News and Reports
87 Consultation generates range of ideas for tackling bovine TB
88 FSA investigates authenticity of meat products
88 Principal role for Glasgow academic
89 Royal opening for Edinburgh university’s farm animal practice
89 Newsletter for those involved in VN education
90 RVN to be removed from the nurses’ register
90 New look for Animal Welfare Foundation
91 Divorce the most common reason for surrendering dogs to breed rescues

90 News in Brief
92 Lameness in dairy cows: the developing story (R. J. Sibley)

96 Research
96 Enhancing the sensitivity of tests for bovine TB (G. F. Medley, L. E. Green)
98 Tuberculin manufacturing source and breakdown incidence rate of bovine tuberculosis in British cattle, 2005-2009 (S. H. Downs and others)
99 Ocular disease in working horses in Ethiopia: a cross-sectional study (C. E. Scantlebury and others)

100 Clinical, microbiological and histological findings in lambs affected by ‘salivary abomasum disease’ (G. Christodouloupolous and others)
101 Can horses be clinically screened for West Nile fever? (G. van Galen and others)
101 Serum biochemical response to contrast media administration in anaesthetised dogs (A. M. Caratenuto and others)

102 Research Digest
103 Should Burns have been a vet? (N. C. C. Sharp)

106 Gazette
108 Letters
108 Approaches to surveillance (R. J. Sibley, P. G. Orpin)
108 New UK veterinary school (L. Reeve-Johnson)
108 Investigation of respiratory disease in IBR vaccinated dairy herds (C. D. Penny)
110 Chlamydia in cases of cattle pneumonia in Scotland (N. Wheelhouse and others)

106 Products and Services
Vet Record Careers
i What makes a vet a researcher?
ii Ten-minute chat