This week’s issue

New memorial for members of the Royal Army Veterinary Corps. p 648

Heavy vetting: a giant tortoise being transported to Bristol Zoo’s vet clinic. p 648

PDSA recognises animal service to society. p 649

642 Comment

642 Breaking down barriers on bovine TB

643 News and Reports

643 Improve International appointed as OV training provider

644 AHVLA invites tenders for the provision of a carcass collection service

644 One Health: collaboration on all levels is key; concludes joint meeting

645 Concern about ‘out of sight, out of mind’ attitude to madri visna

645 FSA launches campaign to tackle Campylobacter in chicken

646 New format for RCVS annual report

647 Call for a single EU-wide authorisation process for veterinary medicines

648 Commemorating members of the RAVC

648 Heavy vetting

649 Award for animal service to society

649 Slaughterhouse on wheels

648 News in Brief

650 Feature

650 One health, many histories (A. Woods, M. Bresalier)

655 Research

655 Managing energy balance in the transition cow (D. C. Barrett and others)

657 Relationships between metabolite and IGF-1 concentrations and fertility and production outcomes following left abomasal displacement in dairy cows (N. A. Lyons and others)

658 Reference intervals for coagulation times using two point-of-care analysers in healthy pet rabbits (Oryctolagus cuniculus) (V. Mentre and others)

659 Quantifying transitions between levels of mobility score in dairy cows (S. C. Stoye and others)

659 Cellulose-acetate electrophoresis reveals haemoglobin variation in Iranian domestic shorthaired cats (A. Araghi and others)

660 Research Digest

661 Viewpoint

661 Sustainable farming: why we need to diversify (J. van Dijk)

663 Gazette

664 Letters

664 Bovine TB and badger control (M. Abraham and others)

666 Transmission of bovine TB (L. H. Thomas)

Products and Services

Vet Record Careers

i Pros and cons of working for a charity

ii Diary of a parliamentary intern