This week’s issue

UK pig producers encouraged to review biosecurity, p 135

Vets, doctors and dentists advise the public on responsible antibiotic use, p 136

Eliminating footrot in sheep by treating flocks with gamithromycin, p 146

132 Comment
132 Perception and advice

133 News and Reports
133 House visits petition based on misunderstanding, says RVCS

134 AVLA outlines enhanced approach to persistent TB breakdowns

134 New panel to provide scientific advice

134 Views sought on TB compensation in Wales

135 Pig producers urged to review biosecurity as ASF and PED spread

136 Interprofessional advice for the public on responsible use of antibiotics

138 Call for AVMA to take a stand against dental implants in dogs and cats

138 Strengthening veterinary education

139 News in Brief

139 Northern Ireland disease surveillance report for October to December 2013

142 Research
142 Psychological wellbeing of veterinary professionals (M. Meehan)

144 Burnout and engagement, and its predictors in young veterinary professionals: the influence of gender (N. J. M. Masterbrook and others)

145 Elevation of serum muscle enzyme activities in racehorses due to unaccustomed exercise and training (S. J. Mack and others)

146 FPL-vaccinated cats are protected from CPV2c and CPV2b challenge (S. C. Jack and others)

146 Field studies on the elimination of footrot in sheep through whole flock treatments with gamithromycin (A. F. Forbes and others)

147 Research Digest

148 Viewpoint
148 How lack of clarity in regulation is stifling veterinary research (N. Jeffery)

150 Gazette

151 Letters
151 Risk of dog bite injury in veterinary practice (N. Singh, M. A. Malik)

151 One Health approach to dog bite prevention (C. J. Mannion, K. Shepherd)

152 Origins of One Health and One Medicine (P. Gibbs)

152 Donations to the VBF (L. Brown)

Products and Services

Vet Record Careers
1
Surprisingly different: small animal practice in New Zealand