This week’s issue

Vets’ contribution to the aquaculture industry, p 252

Specificity of the comparative skin test for bovine TB in Great Britain, p 258

How many UK households own a cat or dog?, p 259

Feature

Vets and aquaculture: an evolving relationship (R. Soutar)

Research

Bovine tuberculosis: how likely is a skin test reactor to be uninfected? (J. A. Drew)

Comment

Consulting on bovine TB

News and Reports

BCVA welcomes roll out of badger cull to Dorset

New qualification for OVs involved in Cymorth TB in Wales

Undertakings accepted in disciplinary case

Raising awareness of sustainable management of liver fluke in sheep

New chairman for greyhound charity

2001 FMD outbreak remembered

Guidelines on epilepsy

Spanish honour for UK graduate

Veterinary medicines: product update

249, 251 News in Brief

245 Research Digest

246 Letters

246 Developing primary health care (E. Höhn, A. Nell)

265 Hepatic lipodystrophy of Galloway calves

267 Products & Services

Vet Record Careers

Studying veterinary medicine in Warsaw

Ten-minute chat