This week's issue

A full house at this year’s National Equine Forum, p 282

Edinburgh vet students provide free treatment for pets living on the streets, p 283

Thinking ahead: the case for wearing hard hats around horses, p 295

276 Comment
276 A rare opportunity

277 News and Reports
277 Fight against antimicrobial resistance ‘must start on farms’
278 Bovine TB: further cattle measures to be introduced in England
278 FVE welcomes new animal health law
279 Practical guidance on chronic kidney disease in cats
279 BVA to present a series of policy webinars
280 Guide to help practices get to grips with compulsory microchipping
280 Bovine heart makes shortlist for imaging awards
281 Celebrations – and controversy – at the 125th Crafts dog show
282 Working together to achieve the best outcomes for equine health and welfare
283 Students offer treatment for pets on the streets

278 News in Brief

284 Surveillance
284 SAC C VS disease surveillance report for December 2015

288 Research
288 Coinfection with type 1 and type 2 PRRSV (J. Zhang)
291 Comparison of commercial type 1 and type 2 PRRSV vaccines against heterologous dual challenge (K. Chiu and others)

292 Difficulties arising from the variety of testing schemes used for bovine viral diarrhoea virus (BVDV) (A. J. Duncan and others)

293 Research Digest

294 Books

295 Viewpoint
295 Think ahead: safety first for equine vets (J. Butterworth)

297 Gazette

298 Letters
298 Recognition of EU veterinary qualifications (P. Torgerson)
298 Managing conspecific overgrooming in rabbits (G. Bradbury)
299 Study on canine total elbow replacement (J. Innes and others)
299 Somulose solution for injection (G. Diesel)
300 Vets and public health (G. Iley)
300 Treatment of clinical mastitis in dairy cattle (T. O. Jones)
300 Wild animal welfare (L. H. Thomas)

Vet Record Careers

i Global issues put a new perspective on working life

ii Ten-minute chat