This week's issue

Campaign to help horse owners recognise equine colic, p 270

Treatment of T cell lymphoma in dogs, p 277

Risk to young Bengal cats from feeding an incomplete diet, p 287

264 Comment

264 Achieving a common good

265 News and Reports

265 Monitoring antibiotic-resistant bacteria in meat

266 G20 summit agrees to take action on antimicrobial resistance

266 RUMA urges G20 to recognise the complexity of AMR

267 Keeping up momentum on ketamine

268 Student ambassadors learn about the science of pet nutrition

268 Industry vision for veterinary medicines regulation

269 Mission Rabies founder to receive WSAVA’s One Health Award

270 REACT to spot early signs of equine colic

270 Royal opening for new veterinary hospital at Battersea

271 Surveys highlight the dangers of unrestrained pets in cars

272 ‘Standing on the shoulders of giants’ at the ISAE international congress

273 Research

273 What is causing limber tail syndrome in labrador retrievers? (N. Harvey)

275 Cumulative incidence and risk factors for limber tail in the Dogslife labrador retriever cohort (C. A. Pugh and others)

276 Actionbacterium pleuropneumoniae serovar 8 predominates in England and Wales (Y. Li and others)

276 Herd owners’ experiences of a voluntary Johnes’ disease eradication programme in Ireland (C. Devitt and others)

277 Treatment of T cell lymphoma in dogs (A. S. Moore)

282 Research Digest

283 Clinical Decision Making

283 Does inclusion of glutamine in oral rehydration solutions improve recovery from mild to moderate diarrhoea in preweaned calves? (A. Turner and others)

285 Books

286 Gazette

287 Letters

287 Secondary nutritional hyperparathyroidism in Bengal cats (F. Taylor-Brown and others)

288 BVA position on bovine TB and badger culls (M. Jones, A. MacMillan) (S. Wensley)

288 Pet imports (I. Richards)

288 Vet Record Careers

i Making public health exciting

ii Ten-minute chat

It can be exhausting chasing around looking for all the answers to help with your particular veterinary business. But at the LONDON VET SHOW it’s all here. Whether you are newly qualified or are a bit longer in the tooth come and be exposed to all the very latest wisdom, with more than 400 exhibitors and a comprehensive 150-seminar-and-conference programme, you can immerse yourself in a whole world of animal care and find exactly what you need to take your business forward in leaps and bounds.

Over two packed days, the London Vet Show exhaustively covers the worlds of companion, equine, farm and business. Delivering seven clinical streams of world-class CPD, all programmed by the Royal Veterinary College and British Veterinary Association to dramatically enhance your practice and personal performance, this is the show every vet should attend. You’d be bucking mad not to.

WOOF! TO BOOK, VISIT LONDONVETSHOW.CO.UK OR CALL US ON 02476 719 687 USING CODE VR3.

September 17, 2016 | Veterinary Record | 263