This week’s issue

130 Comment
130 Pulling together on bluetongue

131 News and Reports
131 Brachycophalic dogs: BVA calls for revised breed standards
131 EMA updates its advice on the use of colistin in animals
132 NOAH responds to the O’Neill review
132 Defra starts to implement new rules on livestock movements
133 BVA offers advice on purulitical turf war
134 Serological survey finds evidence of bluetongue antibodies in UK cattle
136 ‘Remarkable’ horse awarded PDSA Dickin Medal
136 RCVS Knowledge appoints a new director
137 Getting a taste of life as a farm vet
137 Welsh veterinary science centre celebrates its first anniversary
138 Animals pushed to their limits: what are the implications for welfare?
140 Veterinary medicines update

139 News in Brief
141 Surveillance
141 Disease surveillance in England and Wales, July 2016
144 Suspected avian botulism outbreaks in wild waterbirds during the summer

145 Research
145 Does it matter that more boys aren’t applying to vet school? (L. Mossop)

147 Clinical presentation, diagnostic findings and long-term survival in large breed dogs with meningoencephalitis of unknown aetiology (I. Cornelis and others)
148 Why don’t boys apply to vet school? A pilot study (H. C. Perrin)
148 Questionnaire regarding skin disorders in pet and smallholder pigs (H. J. Williams and others)

149 Research Digest

150 Gazette
151 Letters
151 Microchipping very small dogs (F. Taylor-Brown and others)
151 Measuring health-related quality of life in companion animals (J. Reid)
152 Haemorrhagic bowel syndrome associated with ingestion of spoiled concentrate in two Brown Swiss cows (U. Braun and others)
152 Increasing remission in diabetic cats (K. Hazuchova, S. Niessen)

153 Products and Services

WE INSPIRE VETS TO IMPROVE THE LIFE OF ANIMALS

Telephone 020 8891 2007 | www.eickemeyer.co.uk

August 6, 2016 | Veterinary Record | 129