

Suppl 1. Mean scores by behaviour signs, dose (D) and time point. An asterisk (*) indicates a statistically significant ($P < 0.05$) difference between dexmedetomidine and placebo at that time point. P-values are given for behaviours with a significant overall treatment effect.