

Vet Record

The first choice journal for vets

vetrecord.bvapublications.com

Veterinary Record (branded as Vet Record) is an official journal of the British Veterinary Association (BVA). Owned by BVA, it was founded by William Hunting FRCVS in 1888 and has been proud to serve the veterinary profession ever since.

This journal's mission is to deliver high quality, relevant and engaging research, news and debate to help vets develop as professionals, progress their careers and improve animal health and welfare.

Vet Record is published by BMJ Publishing Group Ltd (BMJ), a wholly owned subsidiary of the British Medical Association (BMA), on behalf of BVA.

BVA grants editorial freedom to the editor of Vet Record. The views expressed in the journal are those of the authors and may not necessarily comply with BVA policy. All content in Vet Record is produced and published independently of any commercial or outside influence.

Vet Record follows guidelines on editorial independence produced by the World Association of Medical Editors and the code on good publication practice of the Committee on Publication Ethics.

Vet Record is intended for veterinary professionals and is provided without warranty, express or implied. Statements in the journal are the responsibility of their authors and advertisers and not authors' institutions, BMJ, BVA or the BMA unless otherwise specified or determined by law. Acceptance of advertising does not imply endorsement.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, BMJ and BVA shall not be liable for any loss, injury or damage resulting from the use of Vet Record or any information in it whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise. Readers are strongly advised to verify any information they choose to rely on.
